

During FY 2020, two national state-of-emergency declarations and three Okinawa Prefecture declarations were made. The resulting movement restrictions significantly affected tourism, greatly bringing down numbers of tourists. (Yellow-shaded portions of the graph indicate state-of-emergency periods.)

Source: Okinawa Prefecture government data (for graph creation)

Source: Ryugin Research Institute